

Morgan Schulte, OTR/L

Occupational Therapist

Morgan joined the Pediatric Rehabilitation Team at Exeter Hospital in 2019. She received her Master of Science degree in Occupational Therapy from The College of Saint Scholastica in Duluth, Minnesota. She has experience working in outpatient pediatrics, pediatric psychiatry in the hospital setting, and school-based therapy. As an occupational therapist, Morgan enjoys building rapport with children in order to help them achieve their greatest level of independence while having fun. Her favorite part about her job is having the ability to easily collaborate with other therapists in order to best meet the needs of the child. Outside the clinic, Morgan enjoys exploring new restaurants, getting outdoors, and spending time with her dog.
